Profile

Lauren is a Trainee Solicitor and a new member of the legal team at North West Leicestershire District Council. Lauren has a first class Law Degree from the University of Lincoln and subsequently completed the Legal Practice Course in 2020 with a Distinction.

Lauren is particularly enthusiastic about the opportunity at NWL Legal to undertake a variety of different legal tasks and challenges in a range of different practice areas. She is focused on building on her own legal skills, knowledge and experience whilst working for the team. Lauren is proud to be working as part of North West Leicestershire District Council as they continue to represent the local community.

Lauren will be undertaking training in all specialisms within the team before qualifying as a solicitor in 2023. As part of her training, Lauren will be undertaking a number of professional development and legal skills courses to continue to update her skills and knowledge throughout her period of training.
